

Sinclair is forcing a free commercial to be aired for George Bush. This is obviously a violation of campaign finance law and they need to have their license revoked in that they are working against the public interest.